Joshua should have been first

Added in pencil as son of Wid. Lucia Howe and recorded Lib 58 Folio 50 Date July 8 1712. Shows that the Robert Andrews who married Deborah Frye and was the progenitor of our Boxford branch of the Andrews family was the son of Capt John Andrews and not of Thomas, as has been supposed.

Andrews Family

By a deed dated July 8. 1720 & recorded Lib 38 Folio 50. Capt John Andrews of Boxford conveyed to his son Robert Andrews about 85 acres of land on which said Robert's dwelling house and out buildings were situated, bounded N.E. & S.E. by land of said John Andrews & westerly by land of Timothy Dorman & Joseph Peabody ~~&~~ being evidently the land formerly owned by Abel Longley.

Also John Andrews jr a nephew to the above Capt John and cousin to the above Robert, (as specified in deed) in 1718 in a deed of the same land to the above, Recorded Lib 34. Folio 273, speaks of the land as having been bought of one Longley of Rowley.

From these deeds it seems evident that ~~that~~ the above named ~~Robert~~ over

These deeds are in possession of Wm L. Ennis of Groveland May 23. 1885 of Boxford Robert Andrews was the first of the ancestors of the late Samuel Andrews ~~who~~ who built and liv on the site of his late residence and that our Boxford branch of th family was descended from the elder Robert's Son John instead of Thomas as has been very naturally suppos from our records

Thomas Dorman probably came from Yorkshire, England. That he was 24 years old in 1634 appears from a deposition in Suffolk Court Files. He could have left no descendants in Topsfield next to Richard Dorman's we know nothing further of this Richard, and think he could have left no descendants in Topsfield

EAST BOXFORD.—Obituary Notice. It is with feelings of the utmost regret that we record this week the death of Thomas Perley Dorman Esq. He was a gentleman of more than ordinary merit, and though only thirty years of age, was one of the foremost men in the place. In the affairs of the town he ever showed more than ordinary interest, and in the principles of philanthropy was a strong advocate. In his death the town loses its best promoter of public good, its trusty servant, and the society a most excellent and honorable member. Mr. Dorman was the son of Moses and Phœbe (Perley) Dorman, and was born in 1847. He was admitted to the communion of the first church in Boxford Nov. 4, 1866, where he belonged at the time of his death.

He inherited his father's love for the law, and about two years since he obtained a position with a Mr. Kimball, a prominent lawyer and attorney at Salem, where he could study out its intricacies. He kept at his studies, hoping soon to graduate and earn for himself an undying name, when disease fastened its fangs upon him and bore him to the grave. His many friends hoped that he would fill the position which his father and grandfather held in this town, as long and as prosperous. But we can never witness the realization of his friend's wishes, for "Our friend has passed from earth, At the table of the Lord he bowed his head in prayer,

And in communion sweet the master meet him there, He gently took him by the hand and led him home, Where sorrow, pain and death shall never come."

o stop him, and when he had d started to rejoin my wife wit ng impression that the man leranged. But my darling w er broad fleecy cloak had floate kept her head above water—a n my way rejoicing, resolved otten.

I will not tell you of the emoti ife when she held her child onc er arms. We reached Shireto ight, and found quarters at a co n.

On the following day Laba alled upon me and was about is evidence for my inspection w

That evening I made a confida ife and asked her what I should take the case, I said, I am sure ousand dollars. She bade me do w ght. "God has been very kind e said, "let us look to him f

After this I called on the clergy
